

Stefan Oschmann

Member of the Executive Board of Merck KGaA
Head of the Pharmaceuticals business sector
Chief Executive Officer of Merck Serono

Stefan Oschmann has been a Member of the Executive Board of Merck since January 2011. He is responsible for the Pharmaceuticals business sector including the divisions Merck Serono and Consumer Health and is Chief Executive Officer of Merck Serono.

Before joining Merck KGaA, he worked for the U.S. company Merck & Co. (outside North America: MSD – Merck Sharp & Dohme). There he served most recently as President of Emerging Markets. His prior positions at Merck & Co. included Member of Senior Management and Corporate Officer with responsibility for the business in Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Canada, Senior Vice President in charge of Worldwide Human Health Marketing, as well as Vice President of Europe and the German business. Before that, Stefan Oschmann held various positions in Belgium, the Netherlands, Austria and eastern Europe.

Prior to joining Merck & Co., Stefan Oschmann worked for the International Atomic Energy Agency IAEA from 1985 to 1987 and for the German Animal Health Federation (BfT) from 1987 to 1989, a member association of the German Chemical Industry Association (VCI).

Stefan Oschmann studied veterinary medicine at Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität in Munich from 1977 to 1982 and earned a doctorate there in 1985. He is married and has two children.

External positions

- International Federation of Pharmaceutical Manufacturers & Associations (IFPMA), Vice President
- European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations (EFPIA), Member of the Board
- German Association of Research-Based Pharmaceutical Companies (Verband Forschender Arzneimittelhersteller, vfa), Member of the Board
- Paul Ehrlich Foundation, Member of the Board of Trustees